Congratulations

On 17th June, Phyllis & Harold Stafford will have been married for 65 years. This means they will be celebrating their Blue Sapphire Anniversary. Many congratulations to them from all of us here at St Edward's. Unfortunately, Harold is now not well enough to be at home but it doesn't seem long ago that he was transporting worshippers to church and helping with all the heavy lifting at our fairs. Phyllis (next door neighbour to Muriel Marshall), still supports our church, taking a keen interest in all that is going on at St Edward's.

An invitation from the Bishop of Exeter

The Bishop of Exeter, the Right Reverend Robert Atwell and the Trustees of the Devon Historic Churches Trust invite you to a special Evensong at Exeter Cathedral – by kind permission of the Dean & Chapter – supported by the High Sheriff of Devon, Admiral Sir James Burnell-Nugent on Tuesday, 23rd June at 5.30pm. If interested in attending, contact Claire Sherlock, The Old Farmhouse, Hele Farm, Hennock Road, Bovey Tracey, TQ13 9PP. ## Only Joking!

A 60 year old couple are celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary. During the celebration, a fairy appears and says that since they have been such a loving couple she'll give them each one wish. The wife wishes to travel around the world. The fairy waves her wand and produces a handful of plane tickets. Then comes the husband's turn to wish. He pauses for a moment, then says, "I'd like to have a woman 30 years younger than me." So the fairy picks up the wand and in an instant he's 90 celebrating his 90th birthday.

A couple are about to celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. The husband's work mate says, "That's a big event. What are you going to give your wife?" The husband replies, "A trip to Australia." "But how can you top that on your 25th?" asks his mate. "Don't know for sure," says the husband. "But I'll maybe pay for her fare back."

The newly appointed members of the Parochial Church Council will be meeting for the first time on Monday, 15th June at the Vicarage at 7.30pm. Some new faces will be present, not least Helen Soole who has taken over as Secretary from Claire Edwards. Welcome, Helen and very many thanks Claire for all your work over the past couple of years. We also welcome James Brown as Treasurer: He is to be ably assisted by Peter Anderson. This will release Julian Payne to concentrate on his many other duties. Thank you, Julian, for all the midnight oil you have burned for the cause. Just one less ball for you to juggle and one less hat to wear.

David & Peter have been busy

As was mentioned in last Sunday's Snippets, the masses of wires alongside the floor of the south aisle have been removed and replaced by new multi coil wiring running along the wall. This has been very tidily concealed with trunking. The hours of work involved has been undertaken by David Sinclair and Peter Anderson to whom very grateful thanks.

A message from Glenda

We have been asked by Glenda Davies (our Organist) to express her thanks to all who have sent cards and messages of support. Glenda says she is so grateful for the prayers of her friends at St Edward's. She assures us she is making good progress, getting a little stronger every day and is being well cared for by her daughter. Glenda says she is looking forward to seeing everybody again when she is able.
